

one of the

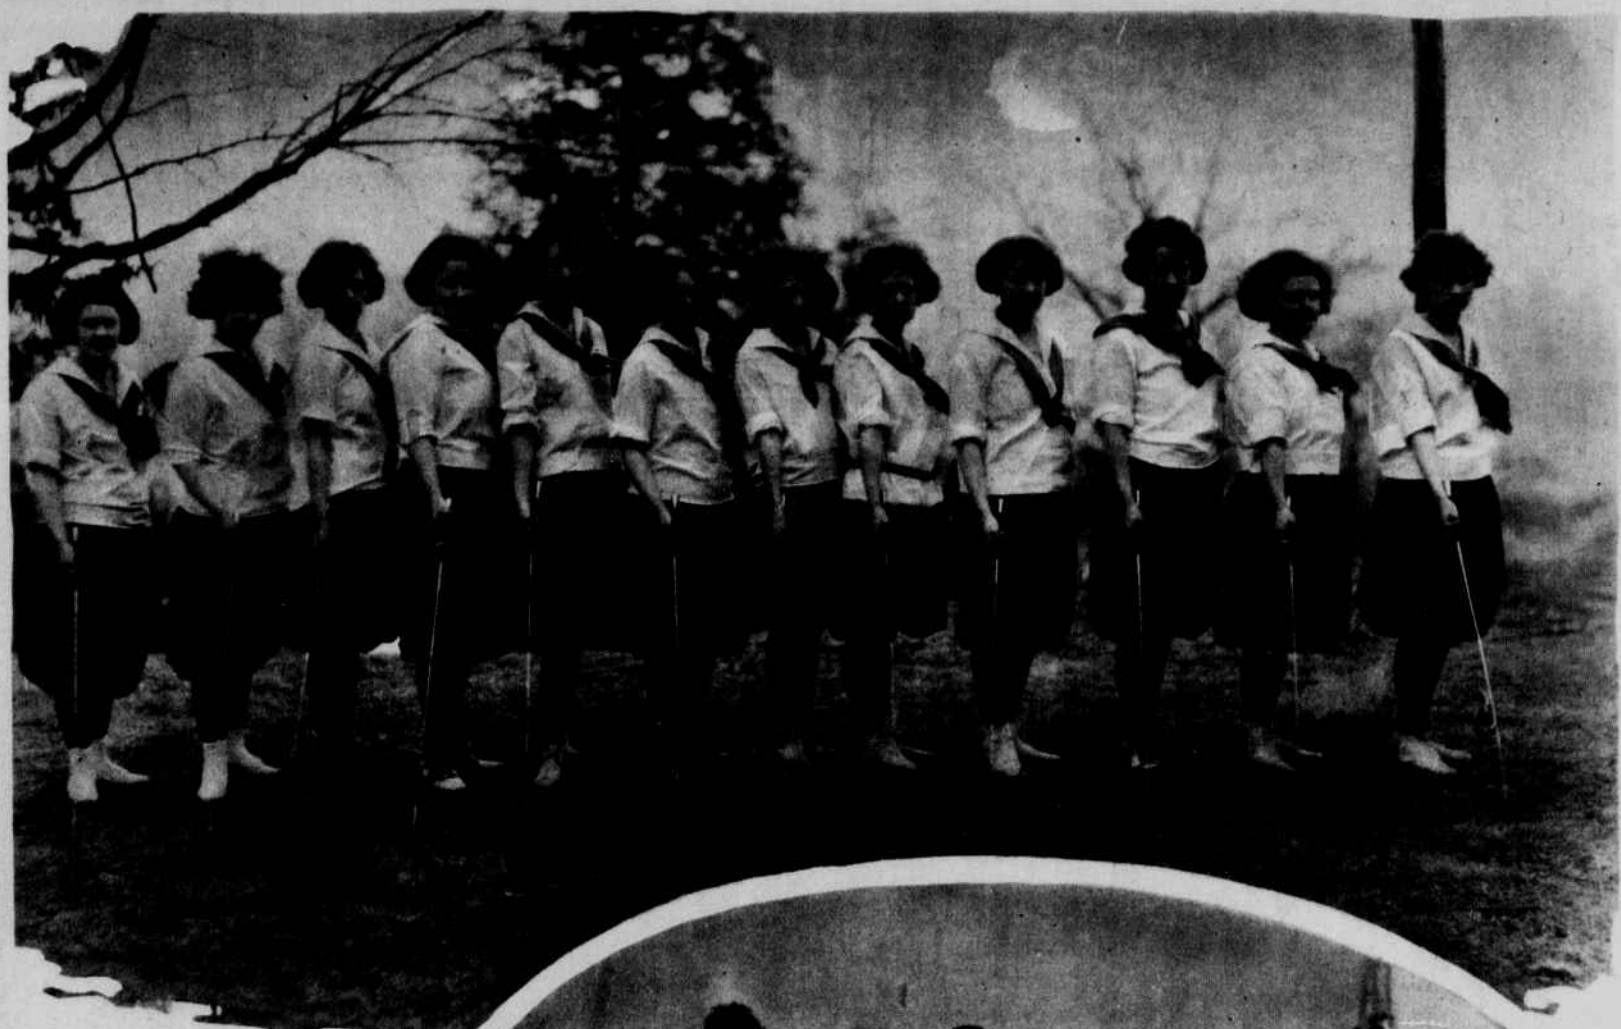

The Puritan, the new fishing schooner, on her way to the fishing banks in Massachusetts, where she will endeavor to uphold the traditions of her "ancestors."
U. & U.

their white ponies in Central Park, sons of Major Robert L. International.

A bride to be. Miss Rhoda Forbes, whose engagement to Mr. William Campbell Armstrong has been formally announced. She is the daughter of H. H. Forbes of New York.

Above—The fencing class at Marymount College, in Tarrytown, N. Y. They proudly declare they are the best fencing team in America.

"The play that keeps Jack from being a dull boy." Sailors attached to the Guantanamo Naval Station, near "Hicacal Beach," enjoying the full benefits of their picturesque station.

Snappy policemen, or policewomen, in "Make It Snappy" at the Winter Garden.

The forest fire in New Jersey. A remarkable view of the costly fire, which was fought by nearly three thousand volunteer firemen, near Lakewood, N. J. Many beautiful estates, including that of John D. Rockefeller, were seriously endangered.